TRIAL OF THE GRAVE ROBBERS-THREE I THE ACCUSED SENT ON TO THE GRAND duny.—The excitement caused yesterday by lacaba, and Susan Jane Simms, the latter colared, had been removed from their graves, and an accest of Raptist Carpenter, Rouben Mas-Thomas Vaughan, and Charles Gaskins, and Albert Butler, a placed driver for an undertaking establishment. larged with the crime, showed very little distances to day when the examination of and of the prisoners commenced at eleven relock, before Mayor Smith, and Justices Whittlesey and Thompson. The station house an stairs and down, was crowded with sexious speciators, both white and colored. Separate warrants were made out against tch of the prisoners, and Al. Rutler was the hest selected for examination. S. G. Brent, e.g., represented the commonwealth, and John

M. Johnston, csq., the prisoner.
The warrant charging Butler with the un-lawful removal of the bodies of Miss Elmira Jacobs and Susan Jane Simms from their graves in the Presbyterian and M. E. Churc's South nemeteries, respectively, on the night of the 25th instant, was read and the first witness called was Baptist Carpenter, colored, who nated that he was a grave digger; was home all the wanted to make some money; said he, Unipenter, could make four or fire deligns to tween that time and Saturday night, by taking up a few bodies; that he knew a doctor in Washington who would give $2 apicco for sulfacts; Butler came to see him again Tues. lay night on the subject, and he, the witness, rold him he would not do such a job for fifty d liars. In respons to questions, Carpenter ated that he was home at 12 o'clock Wedgesday night; that Batler did not tell him the nama of the ductor in Washington who wanted the "subject" but said he would be in Alex societs Tuesday bight; did not know whether there were any atrangues at Mass Jacobs' func-al or not; Butler called to see him again Tues day and asked him if he was going to take the

Thomas Vaughn, a colored grave dieger, wa-the next witness. He stated that At. Buder came to him Wednesday night and told him be would give him [Vaughu] $2 to witch while he went up to the Methodist Protestant ginve yard to take up bodies; that he wanted 'tnat' body, but did not say what bedy it was; he agreed, and went off to the folder stack in the vard where he fived [Spring Garden, in Grave Yard lane, | and Butler went on to the grave yard; this was about So'clek; he did not wake up until he was scared out by the wind and the noise of a wagon; he then left the fedder tack, but went back again, and some time at ter saw parties going up the lace with a light;
w Mr. Webb step at his house and call for dohn Landon, who lives in the house with him. Upon cross examination the winness gave hout the came evidence, stating that Butler a ie the bargain with him to watch while he tack up the bodies, about 10 o'clock Wednesday

Charles Gashins and Reuben Massey, two of the accused, were called on for a scattere in, but they denied knowing anything about the most

Officer Goodrich testified that he was sent to asks to examination of the grave yards on the west of the roshery of the graves; that he raoff of Mr. Wheatley of the fact that the body Miss decobs and been taken from the grave, and was lying exposed in the grave word, and at his request, west to O. A. Lumpkins' a'ter Catles, the driver; found him in bed, and on .cong teld of the circumstance expressed no surpress; it was twelve o'clock when he called for Butter.

Plantanuel Webb made about the some state ment of the affair as that published is yes, and day's Gazette. Cross examised—Saw only two men; saw a good many tracks; he noticed that Butter manifested no surprise at the relbery of the grave; one man could not have done the work; the men who came after the bodges were white; could swear to the wagen but not to the horse.

Walter Daily, sexton of several of the yards testified that his tool house was in St. Paul's Cometery; Carpenter had access to it, but brought the key to his house about five e'clock Wednesday evening and it was not taken away again; all the dirt was taken out of the grave of the colored woman Simms, and the body was drawn out by means of a rope placed around the

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL

Business continues to be greatly impeded by the condition of affairs in the surrounding country, owing to the weather, and the con tinued ice blocks to the indications being that there will be no change for the better for some time, Venner's prediction to the contrary, that is, judging by the temperature to day. Certain it is that it will be some time before the river is open. In mondary office there is nothing of interest to note. There is a very liberal offering of loanable funds in Baltimore, and rates are easier. Leans are quoted at 4a5 per cent, with the bulk of the business at the intermediate figure. In the New York money market yesterday 5 per cent was the ruling rate for call loans, the excoptional rates theirg 4 and 6 per cent. Time loans were 4.5 per cent, on good collatoral. Prime mercantile paper 5352 per cent. The quoted rate for loans on best collateral in the Philadelphia market is 4 per cent. Government bonds were easier yesterday, closing a lower on the 6s of 1881 and the 5 per cents. State securities quiet, except for Virginia consols, which were active yesterday and stronger, opening at 78, and solling up to 79, closing, after tales of about $118,000, with 781 bid, 79 asked. The 10 4); were quiet and steady, $37,000 selling at 511, closing at 5132511. There were some sales of 10 (0 coupons at 93. Consol coupons were held at 91, with only 92? bil at the close. Peelers were firm and & higher, $1010 changing hands at 2) The railroad stock list is very firm. B & O common is quoted 190 bid and 20. asked, and the preferred 120 bid for first and 110 al 20 for second. Local shares quiet, but we quote: O, A & M 73 1(27a101; O & A 63 1st 118; do 21 12: 3; do 8s 31 10); do 4th 57s6); Virginia & Tennessee 8s 1!8

The New York Post's financial article of today says: At the Stock Exchange U. S. bonds are firm at a full recovery from yestorday's decline. R. R. bonds are irregular but generally lower. The clder and choicer investment bonds are scarce. The stock market was alternately strong and heavy in the first heavy significant. the Baltimore and Potomae railroad, 25 miles from Bowie, running stuth. The engineer and construction corps began staking out the grades whilst the snew was on the ground, in order to push active work as soon as the condition of the soil will permit. Col. S. T.
